

2016 NorthEast Experimental Fly-In!

hosted by EAA Chapter 106

SAT, JUNE 25 BRING A FRIEND!

Seminar Speaker Bios

Update in Aeromedical Certification & Toxicology

Dr. Joseph Ray

https://www.faasafety.gov/SPANS/event_details.aspx?eid=69560

Flight Surgeon- Aerospace Medical Certification Div - Medical Appeals

Joseph Ray, MD, finished medical school on a United States Air Force Health Professions Scholarship program and then practiced at Tyndall AFB in Panama City, Fla., on active duty. Following a lengthy period in private practice, he became an aviation medical examiner in the New England area in 2007. He joined the New England Region as the Deputy Regional Flight Surgeon in 2009 and currently works in the Medical appeals section of the Aeromedical Certification Division. He is residency trained in both internal medicine and emergency medicine.

First Flights – In New or Newly Refurbished Aircraft

Bob DiMeo & Will Thorn

https://www.faasafety.gov/SPANS/event_details.aspx?eid=69561

EAA Technical Counselors & builders of experimental aircraft

Robert Di Meo - Flying since 1979. over 6000 hours, ATP, MEI, CFI, CFII, EAA Tech Counselor. Currently flying for Kollsman Inc. as a test pilot for HUD, EVS and Joint Strike Fighter product lines. Have owned a Piper Arrow, C-172, Piper Aerostar and Piper Comanche. Built and currently flying a Vans RV-8.

Willard F. Thorn PE - Flying since 1975, over 4000 hours, Multi-engine ATP, A&P, Ground instructor, EAA Flight Adviser, EAA Technical Councilor, Professional Engineer. Built Vari-Eze 1978, have owned C-172, C-177RG, C-182 and C-310. Worked for Air Force building and launching rocket, balloon, satellite and space shuttle instruments.

Basic Metal Aircraft Construction workshop

Stephen Briggs

https://www.faasafety.gov/SPANS/event_details.aspx?eid=69563

Builder of a Van's RV-9 (metal aircraft)

Stephen Briggs - USAF B-52, and B-47 mechanic, Home Builder, Vari-Eze, Currently building an RV-9. Maintained numerous aircraft, have A&P license, completed ground up restorations of PA23-150 Apache, Aeronca Chief 11BC, and 11AC Chief, Long time member of EAA, AOPA, and current FAA FAST team representative. Given seminar presentations at FAASafety clinics, and classroom teaching at NH Aviation historical facility in KMHT. Pilot ratings - ATP, CFII, Multi, Glider, and Seaplane.

Composite Aircraft Construction and Repair workshop

Izzy Briggs

https://www.faasafety.gov/SPANS/event_details.aspx?eid=69563

Builder of a Cozy, a canard aircraft of composite construction, designed by Burt Rutan

Izzy Briggs - Flying since 1986. 500 hours, SEL, MEL, EAA Officer. Currently owns and operates a Rutan VariEze and is building a Cozy Mark IV.